

STAFFOO

DRUG & ALCOHOL POLICY

POLICY STATEMENT

The use of drugs and alcohol may impair an employee's capacity to perform their job safely, efficiently and with respect for work colleagues and customers. No employee is to commence work or return to work whilst under the influence of alcohol or drugs if that influence impairs the employee's work performance.

Any concerns should be raised with a manager/supervisor immediately. Employees found to be under the influence of illegal or illicit drugs or alcohol whilst at work may be subject to disciplinary action which includes termination of their employment.

PROHIBITED CONDUCT

The unauthorised use, sale, possession or distribution of any type of drug is always prohibited on STAFFOO operated premises. If an employee is found to request, purchase, possess, distribute or use an illegal or illicit drug on STAFFOO premises the employee will be subject to disciplinary action which includes termination of their employment.

SUPPORT & ASSISTANCE

To assist employees in the treatment of alcohol or drug problems, we have a list of referral counsellors available upon request.

STAFFOO

CODE OF CONDUCT / ANTI-BRIBERY

PRINCIPLES

Our employees contribute to the success of our organisation and that of our Clients. Our employees have an obligation to the Business, our Clients and themselves to observe high standards of integrity and fair dealing. Unlawful and unethical business practices undermine employee and Client trust.

CODE OF CONDUCT

STAFFOO requires all employees to read, understand and abide by the Code of Conduct, which is updated from time-to-time. As new starters join the business throughout the year, they must complete the training within their first 30 days of employment and review the complete STAFFOO Policies, which can be found on our Intranet / STAFFOO Platform.

ANTI-BRIBERY

It is STAFFOO's policy to conduct all business in an honest and ethical manner, with a zero-tolerance approach to bribery and corruption. We are committed to acting professionally, fairly and with integrity in all our business dealings and relationships and to implement and enforce effective systems to prevent bribery.

As an employee, you are required to disclose all gifts and hospitality received from any 3rd party (include customer, vendor, supplier, business partner and etc.) when received, regardless of the value. These should be issued straight to the Directors.

STAFFOO

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

INTRODUCTION

Conflict of interest arises whenever the personal, professional or business interests of an employee are potentially at odds with the best interests of STAFFOO. All employees are required to act in good faith towards STAFFOO. Employees need to be aware of the potential for a conflict of interest to arise and should always act in the best interests of STAFFOO.

As individuals, employees may have private interests that from time to time conflict, or appear to conflict, with their employment with STAFFOO. Employees should aim to avoid being put in a situation where there may be a conflict between the interests of STAFFOO and their own personal or professional interests, or those of relatives or friends. Where such a conflict occurs (or is perceived to occur), the interests of STAFFOO will be balanced against the interests of the staff member and, unless exceptional circumstances exist, resolved in favour of STAFFOO.

If an employee is in doubt if a conflict exists, they should raise the matter with their manager.

PROCEDURE

Employees must:

- Declare any potential, actual or perceived conflicts of interest that exist on becoming employed by STAFFOO to management.
- Declare any potential, actual or perceived conflicts of interest that arise or are likely to arise during employment by STAFFOO to management.
- Avoid being placed in a situation where there is potential, actual or perceived conflict of interest if at all possible.

If an employee declares such an interest, STAFFOO will review the potential areas of conflict with the employee and mutually agree on practical arrangements to resolve the situation. Employees must disclose any other employment that might cause a conflict of interest with STAFFOO to their manager.

Employees must not set up or engage in private business or undertake other employment in direct or indirect competition with STAFFOO using knowledge and/or materials gained during the course of employment. Engaging in other business interests during work hours will result in disciplinary action.

STAFFOO

DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURE

INTRODUCTION

STAFFOO is committed to achieving a productive and vibrant workplace. However, at times, disputes can arise in the workplace. A dispute exists when one or more people disagree about something and matters remain unresolved. To effectively manage this, STAFFOO adopts the procedure detailed in this document.

SCOPE & APPLICATION

This procedure applies to all staff and contractors working at STAFFOO.

- The parties to the dispute shall genuinely attempt to resolve the dispute at a workplace level through discussion and negotiation.
- If a dispute is not resolved at the workplace level within 14 days, the dispute shall be referred to the Directors.
- If unsuccessful, an approved external professional will be engaged.

CONDUCTING THE ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

1. The alternative dispute resolution process shall be conducted by a person (or persons) who is accredited by the Institute of Arbitrators and Mediators Australia (IAMA) and agreed between the parties in dispute on the matter.
2. If the parties do not agree on a person to conduct the process, then the process shall be conducted by the person nominated by either the President/CEO of IAMA or the President/CEO of IAMA's delegate.
3. Unless the parties to the dispute agree otherwise, the dispute resolution process shall be conducted in accordance with the IAMA Procedures.
4. The parties will participate in good faith in the dispute resolution process and shall comply with any directions made by the person conducting the process.

CONDUCT DURING A DISPUTE

An employee who is a party to a dispute must, while the dispute is being resolved:

- Continue to work in accordance with his or her contract of employment, unless the employee has a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to his or her health or safety.
- Comply with any reasonable direction given by his or her employer to perform other available work, either at the same workplace or at another workplace.

STAFFOO

ETHICAL SOURCING & MODERN SLAVERY POLICY

PURPOSE

Business plays an important role in respecting and promoting human rights and eradicating modern slavery. STAFFOO recognise that modern slavery is a growing and complex problem, best tackled by collective commitment and responsibility to bring it to an end and we are committed to working with all our stakeholders to fulfil this common goal.

If the policy is breached, we will act as quickly as practicable to remedy our adverse impacts on workers, individuals or communities and we will engage directly with affected stakeholders.

The purpose of this Policy is to ensure that STAFFOO:

- Is compliant with local and national laws.
- Sources products and services in accordance with legal obligations and community expectations.
- Act to prevent, mitigate and where appropriate, remedy modern slavery in their operations and supply chains.

POLICY

1. STAFFOO must adopt policies and procedures to ensure that it is addressing modern slavery and ethical sourcing risks in its operations and supply chains.
2. STAFFOO must, as far as practicable, include in its operational and supplier contract terms, requirements that suppliers comply with all local and national laws.
3. STAFFOO must, as far as practicable, use in its operational and contract terms requirements that suppliers comply with this policy and approach.
4. STAFFOO must monitor and review the effectiveness of the policies and procedures taking into account their suitability, adequacy and effectiveness as per the risk assessment.

STAFFOO

FATIGUE MANAGEMENT POLICY

INTRODUCTION & COMMITMENT

STAFFOO recognises that fatigue affects a person's health, safety and wellbeing, increases the chance of illness and workplace injuries occurring, and reduces performance and productivity. STAFFOO is committed to providing a safe, healthy and productive workplace for all staff.

To achieve this goal, STAFFOO is committed to:

- Managing fatigue using a risk management approach.
- Consulting with workers before hours of work or shifts are changed.
- Rotating on-call shifts so that workers have an adequate work-life balance.
- Requiring all staff to limit the amount of accrued annual leave.
- Ensuring those working extended hours or on shifts have appropriate breaks between shifts.
- Agreeing to realistic contractual agreements with clients.

In addition, STAFFOO asks our workers to take responsibility and comply with the following:

- Make every effort to have adequate sleep or rest between shifts.
- Ensure outside activities do not cause fatigue or impaired performance.
- Report to their Manager if they think they are suffering from fatigue.

ROLES & RESPONSIBILITIES

- All Staff: Maintain an adequate understanding of fatigue, use accumulated annual leave, and do not work excessive hours without adequate controls.
- Managers: Ensure contracts consider fatigue impacts, monitor team workloads, comply with rostering as per the Modern Award, and provide effective supervision.
- Field/Office Staff: Take reasonable care of themselves, avoid secondary employment that contributes to fatigue, and report signs of fatigue immediately.

RISK MANAGEMENT CONTROLS

- Limit of an average of 60 hours per week over the roster cycle.
- Limit of 12 hours per planned rostered shift (Staff are never allowed to work more than 14 hours in one shift after extensions).
- Limit of 6 days consecutive work.
- Minimum of 8 hours between shifts.

STAFFOO

HEALTH & SAFETY MANAGEMENT PLAN

1. INTRODUCTION

STAFFOO's Health & Safety Plan reflects the commitment from Management to provide and maintain a safe working environment in which employees are not deliberately or unnecessarily exposed to hazards. It is important to note that site or job-specific Risk Management Analysis and Safe Work Method Statements will be developed.

Objectives:

- To promote health, safety and welfare of persons at work.
- To protect persons at work against hazards.
- To implement controls to reduce risks to all.

Responsibility:

All employees and contractors must comply and implement controls to reduce risks, including:

- Being responsible for their own health and safety and that of others.
- Not interfering with or misusing protective equipment.
- Reporting immediately to management all incidents, near misses or unsafe conditions.

2. MANAGEMENT

The appropriate hazard identification process must be applied prior to commencing a job or task. This includes a hazard checklist before commencing work.

Incident Reporting:

All reports are to be conducted via the STAFFOO online platform. The following must be reported: Employee name, Date/Time of incident, Who it was reported to, What occurred, Incident address, Medical treatment required, and if Stakeholders were notified.

Personnel Protective Equipment (PPE):

PPE requirements vary. As an indication, the following may be provided: Hard Hats, Hearing Protection, Fluorescent Safety Shirts/Vests, Steel Toe Capped Boots, Long Trousers. No employee will use Safety Equipment unless qualified or trained.

SECURITY OPERATING PROCEDURES

The following standard operating procedures apply to all employees, contractors and visitors of STAFFOO.

PROCEDURES OVERVIEW:

1. General Anti-Discrimination Procedure
2. Sexual Harassment Procedure
3. Workplace Bullying Procedure
4. Internet/Email/Social Media Procedure
5. Occupational Health & Safety/Workplace Health & Safety Procedure
6. Drugs & Alcohol Procedure
7. Conflicts of Interest Procedure
8. Confidentiality Procedure
9. Responding to Media Procedure
10. Training and Licencing Procedure
11. Bodyguard Procedure

1. GENERAL ANTI-DISCRIMINATION PROCEDURE

At STAFFOO we are committed to the principle of respecting and valuing diversity in our team. We achieve this by preventing discrimination on the basis of race, ethnic origin, colour, pregnancy or potential pregnancy, sex, sexual harassment, impairment, sexual preference, age, marital status, family responsibilities or status, mental or intellectual disability, trade union activity, religion, political opinion, sexual orientation, gender identity, intersex status, national extraction or social origin. Any breach of this procedure will result in disciplinary action.

2. SEXUAL HARASSMENT & 3. WORKPLACE BULLYING

STAFFOO will fiercely defend the right of every employee and volunteer to perform their work without being subjected to sexual harassment or bullying. We consider bullying an unacceptable form of behaviour, which will not be tolerated in the workplace under any circumstance. Detailed definitions and reporting processes for these are available in their respective dedicated policies.

4. INTERNET/E-MAIL/SOCIAL MEDIA PROCEDURE

The business makes use of the internet and e-mails as a business tool. Each employee is responsible for the ethical and lawful use of internet and e-mail facilities. Comments made by an employee on a social media site will be viewed as unacceptable where those comments make adverse assertions about your employer, other staff of your employer, or operational practices of your employer. STAFFOO reserves the right to monitor and audit any or all internet or e-mail activity undertaken by employees using company resources.

5. OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & SAFETY PROCEDURE

STAFFOO commits to provide a safe and healthy environment for both onsite and offsite employees and contractors. All employees are required to report incidents as soon as possible after the incident/near miss has occurred and follow all health and safety policies and procedures.

6. DRUG AND ALCOHOL PROCEDURE

The use of drugs and alcohol may impair an employee's capacity to perform their job safely, efficiently and with respect for work colleagues and customers. No employee is to commence work or return to work whilst under the influence of alcohol or drugs if that influence impairs the employees work performance. The unauthorised use, sale, possession or distribution of any type of drug is always prohibited on STAFFOO operated premises.

7. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST PROCEDURE

A conflict of interest is a situation where your personal or professional interests may conflict with your position and your obligations and responsibilities as an employee. You must make every effort to avoid conflicts of interest. Employment undertaken outside of works hours is permitted unless that employment causes a conflict of interest.

8. CONFIDENTIALITY PROCEDURE

Information about STAFFOO and its clients is confidential and always remains the property of STAFFOO. Confidential Information must only be used in the course of your employment and may not be released or taken offsite without authorisation from the Directors.

9. RESPONDING TO MEDIA INQUIRIES PROCEDURE

Media or public comment about STAFFOO can only be made by the Directors. You must inform the Directors as soon as any media enquiries are received.

10. TRAINING AND LICENCING PROCEDURE

All STAFFOO staff are required to maintain their Private Security Individual Licence compliance and must notify the Directors immediately if any issues arise with the licence. Along with their Private Security Individual Licence, all employees must hold a current Provide First Aid and undertake upgrades as required.

11. BODYGUARD PROCEDURE

All members of our body guarding team must hold a current security licence with the bodyguard unit as required by LRD. The team must remain discrete at all times and confidentiality is also key always.

STAFFOO

WORKPLACE BULLYING

INTRODUCTION

STAFFOO is committed to providing a safe and healthy work environment in which all workers are treated fairly, with dignity and respect. Bullying is a risk to the health and safety of the workplace. It is unacceptable and will not be tolerated by STAFFOO. This policy outlines STAFFOO's commitment to a safe workplace and is aimed at ensuring, so far as it reasonably can, that employees are not subjected to any form of bullying while at work. It also details the legal responsibilities of STAFFOO and employees in relation to preventing bullying in the workplace.

SCOPE

This policy covers all employees of STAFFOO (whether full-time, part-time or casual) and all persons performing work at the direction of, in connection with, or on behalf of STAFFOO (for example contractors, subcontractors, agents, consultants, and temporary staff) (collectively "workers"). This policy extends to all functions and places that are work related, for example, work lunches, conferences, Christmas parties and client functions.

DEFINITIONS

Workplace bullying is repeated, and unreasonable behaviour directed towards a worker, or a group of workers, that creates a risk to health and safety. It includes both physical and psychological risks and abuse. Bullying behaviours can take many different forms, which could include:

- Repeated hurtful remarks or attacks or making fun of your work or you as a person.
- Sexual harassment.
- Excluding you or stopping you from taking part in activities that relate to your work.
- Playing mind games, ganging up on you, or other types of psychological harassment.
- Intimidation (making you feel less important and undervalued).
- Giving you pointless tasks that have nothing to do with your job.
- Pushing, shoving, tripping or grabbing you in the workplace.
- Attacking or threatening with equipment, Initiation or hazing.

The above examples do not represent a complete list of bullying behaviours. They are indicative of the type of behaviours which may constitute bullying and are totally unacceptable.

POLICY

STAFFOO will not tolerate bullying harassment under any circumstances. Responsibility lies with every Manager, Supervisor and employee/contractor to ensure that this does not occur. This policy applies to conduct that takes place in any work-related context, including conferences, work functions, social events and business trips. No employee or volunteer at any level should subject any other employee, volunteer, customer or visitor to any form of bullying.

A breach of this policy will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

STAFFOO strongly encourages any employee who feels they have been bullied to take immediate action. If an employee or volunteer feels comfortable in doing so, they can raise the issue with the person directly with a view to resolving the issue by discussion. The employee or volunteer should identify the harassing behaviour, explain that the behaviour is unwelcome and offensive and ask that the behaviour stops.

However, given the seriousness of harassment, we recommend that this discussion happens in consultation with the relevant manager, human resource personnel or CEO. Alternatively, or in addition, they may report the behaviour in accordance with the relevant procedure.

Once a report is made the organisation will determine how the report should be dealt with in accordance with its obligations and this policy. Any reports of bullying will be treated seriously and promptly with sensitivity. Such reports will be treated as completely confidential but the person the subject of the complaint must be notified under the rules of natural justice. The organisation will protect all those involved in the process from victimisation.

Complainants have the right to determine how to have a complaint treated, to have support or representation throughout the process, and the option to discontinue a complaint at any stage of the process.

The alleged harasser also has the right to have support or representation during any investigation, as well as the right to respond fully to any formal allegations made. There will be no presumptions of guilt and no determination made until a full investigation has been completed.

All employees and volunteers have the right to seek the assistance of the relevant tribunal or legislative body to assist them in the resolution of any concerns.

Managers or Supervisors who fail to take appropriate corrective action when aware of harassment of a person will be subject to disciplinary action.

STAFFOO

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

INTRODUCTION

STAFFOO will fiercely defend the right of every employee and volunteer to perform their work without being subjected to sexual harassment. Every employee and contractor are responsible for providing an environment that is supportive of this aim. Everyone must treat everyone else with respect and must aim to act as a beacon for good behaviour in the workplace.

It is the obligation and responsibility of every employee and volunteer to ensure that the workplace is free from sexual harassment. Everyone working at STAFFOO is responsible for the care and protection of our people and for reporting information about suspected sexual harassment.

STAFFOO is fully committed to its obligation to prevent and eliminate sexual harassment in the workplace.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this document is to outline STAFFOO's position on sexual harassment and to document the process which is to be followed should any grievances arise.

DEFINITIONS

Sexual harassment means any unwelcome sexual advance, unwelcome request for sexual favours, or other unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature which makes a person feel offended, humiliated or intimidated, and where that reaction is reasonable in the circumstances. Examples of sexual harassment include, but are not limited to:

- Staring or leering.
- Unnecessary familiarity, such as deliberately brushing up against you or unwelcome touching.
- Suggestive comments or jokes.
- Insults or taunts of a sexual nature.
- Intrusive questions or statements about your private life.
- Displaying posters, magazines or screen savers of a sexual nature.
- Sending sexually explicit emails or text messages.
- Inappropriate advances on social networking sites.
- Accessing sexually explicit internet sites.
- Requests for sex or repeated unwanted requests to go out on dates.
- Behaviour that may also be an offence under criminal law, such as physical assault, indecent exposure, sexual assault, stalking or obscene communication.

Behaviour that is based on mutual attraction, friendship and respect is not sexual harassment.

POLICY

STAFFOO will not tolerate sexual harassment under any circumstances. Responsibility lies with every Manager, Supervisor and employee/contractor to ensure that sexual harassment does not occur.

Both federal and state Equal Employment Opportunity legislation provide that sexual harassment is unlawful and establish minimum standards of behaviour for all employees. This policy applies to conduct that takes place in any work-related context, including conferences, work functions, social events and business trips.

No employee or volunteer at any level should subject any other employee, volunteer, customer or visitor to any form of sexual harassment. A breach of this policy will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

STAFFOO strongly encourages any employee who feels they have been sexually harassed to take immediate action. If an employee or volunteer feels comfortable in doing so, they can raise the issue with the person directly with a view to resolving the issue by discussion. The employee or volunteer should identify the harassing behaviour, explain that the behaviour is unwelcome and offensive and ask that the behaviour stops.

However, given the seriousness of sexual harassment, we recommend that this discussion happens in consultation with the relevant manager, human resource personnel or CEO. Alternatively, or in addition, they may report the behaviour in accordance with the relevant procedure.

Once a report is made the organisation will determine how the report should be dealt with in accordance with its obligations and this policy. Any reports of sexual harassment will be treated seriously and promptly with sensitivity. Such reports will be treated as completely confidential but the person the subject of the complaint must be notified under the rules of natural justice. The organisation will protect all those involved in the process from victimisation.

Complainants have the right to determine how to have a complaint treated, to have support or representation throughout the process, and the option to discontinue a complaint at any stage of the process.

The alleged harasser also has the right to have support or representation during any investigation, as well as the right to respond fully to any formal allegations made. There will be no presumptions of guilt and no determination made until a full investigation has been completed.

No employee or volunteer will be treated unfairly as a result of rejecting unwanted advances. Disciplinary action may be taken against anyone who victimises or retaliates against a person who has complained of sexual harassment, or against any employee or volunteer who has been alleged to be a harasser.

All employees and volunteers have the right to seek the assistance of the relevant tribunal or legislative body to assist them in the resolution of any concerns.

Managers or Supervisors who fail to take appropriate corrective action when aware of harassment of a person will be subject to disciplinary action.
